Provider Guide:
Finding Child Health Resources

The intended audience for this article is professionals/providers looking for child health resources for their clients/patients.

If you are a parent or caregiver looking for child health resources for your child and would like help, please visit the "One-on-one Help" page.

Part 1: Determine your situation to find out which tool to use.

1. Which one of the following statements best matches your situation, 1, 2, or 3?

1. "I know my patient's needs. I have identified appropriate search terms. I want help finding services that meet the criteria."
2. "I know my patient's needs. I want to find all of the types of resources available."
3. "I want a comprehensive, customized guide for my patient's needs."

2. Based on the statement you chose from above, find out which tool to use below.

1. "I know my patient's needs. I have identified appropriate search terms. I want help finding services that meet the criteria."

3. "I want a comprehensive, customized guide for my patient's needs."

Navigate

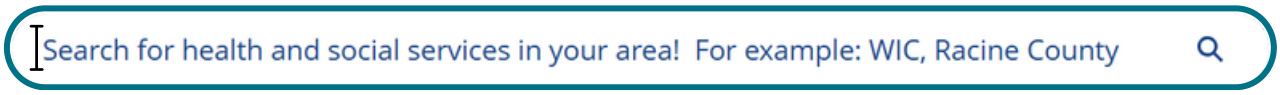

comprehensive and custom

Part 2: Use the tool that best suits your situation.

Refer to the instructions below to learn how to most efficiently use each tool.

1 Search

1. Go to wellbadger.org.
2. Select the search bar.

3. Enter in keywords that describe the type of resource you are looking for.

   Examples:
   - Developmental screenings Sauk County
   - ADHD Dane County
   - Telehealth child mental health

Tips:
- Multiple keywords can be used in one search.
- Other searchable aspects of a resource:
  - City
  - Zip code

4. If there are resources that fit the keywords you entered, a list of resources will come up.

Tips:
- If resources do not show up, try checking for typos or broadening and reducing keywords used.
- If there are more than 5 resources, select "View More" to show additional resources.

5. Select a resource's "Available Service Name" to learn more about the resource.

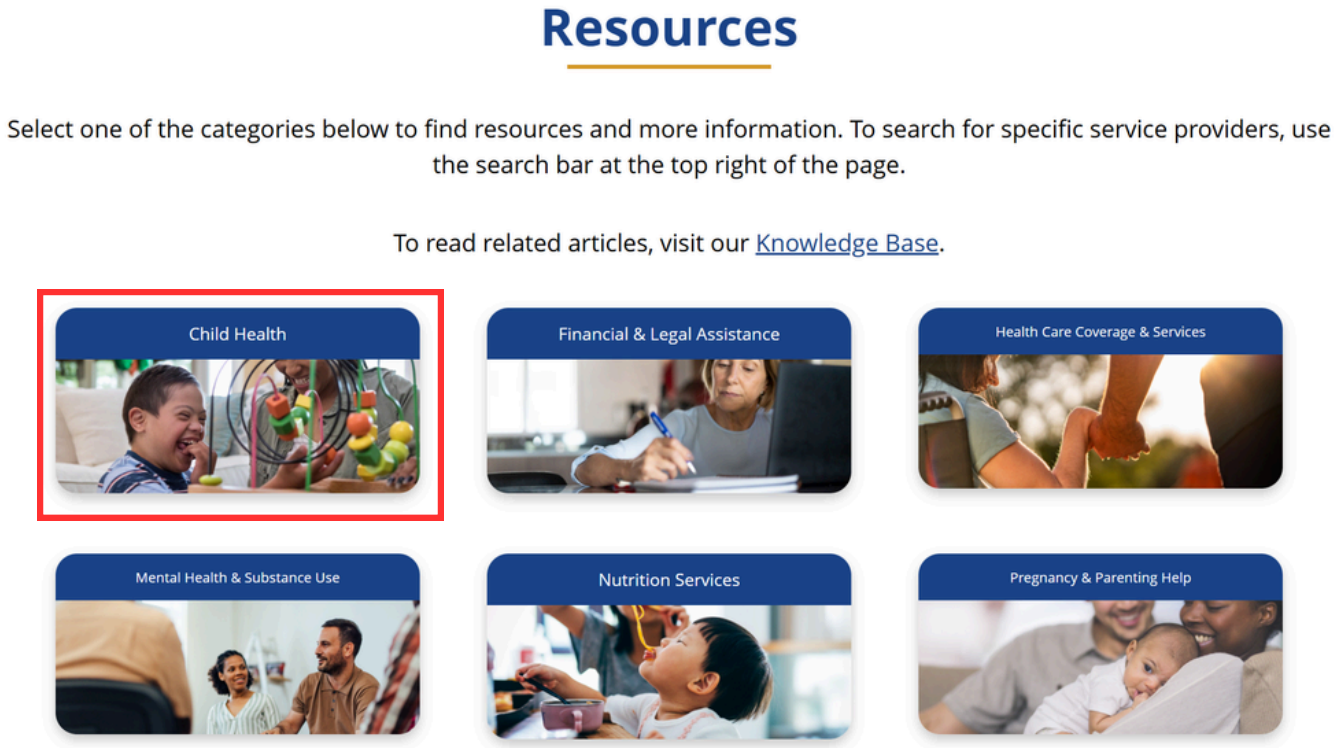

Tips:

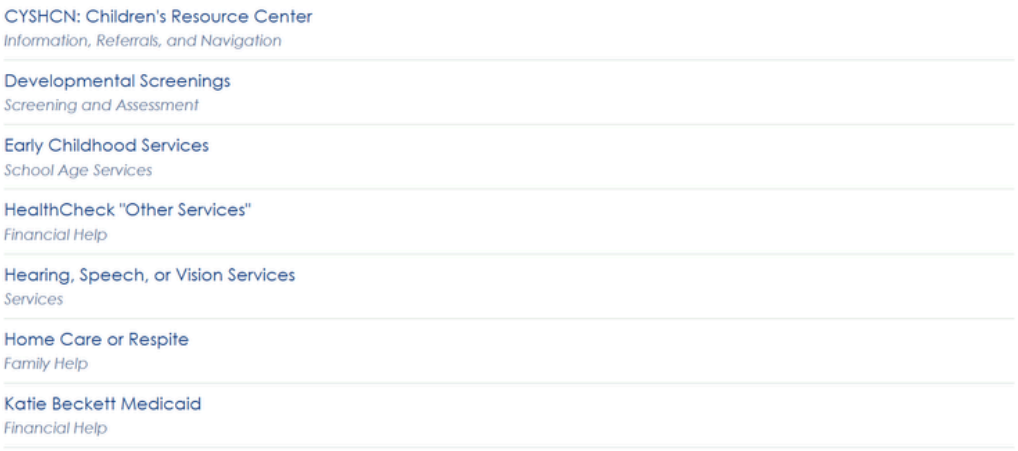

- Use Ctrl+F or ⌘+F to find where your entered keyword(s) are in the resource. If the keyword does not come up, that means the entered keyword is in the backend of the resource (not visible online).
- Some keywords (such as abbreviations) may yield undesired results because they are a part of another longer word.

2 Browse

1. Go to wellbadger.org.
2. Select "Find Resources" on the top menu bar.
3. Select "Child Health" to find resource types available.

4. Select the resource type of interest to find resources.

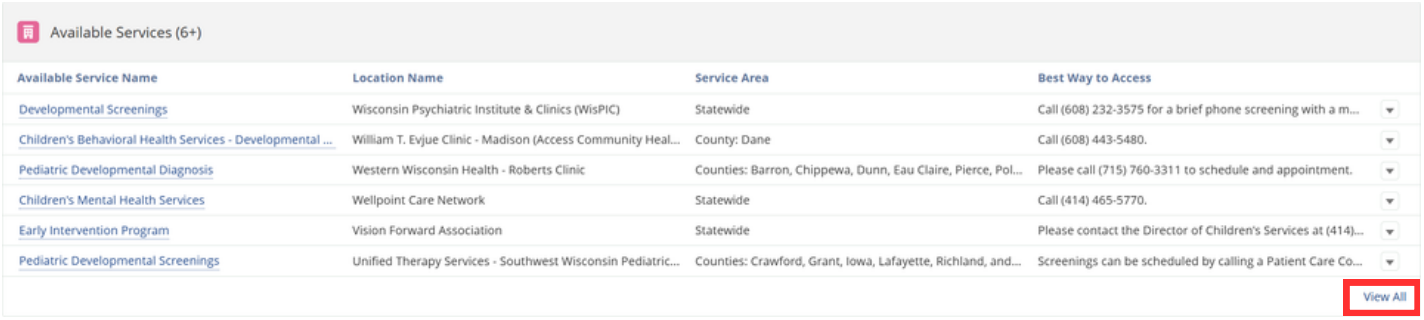

Note: There are more resource types in "Child Health" than shown in the image above.

Tip:

- Resource types are listed in alphabetical order.

5. A list of resources will come up. Depending on the type of resource there may be a brief description of the resource above the list of available resources.

Tip:

- Select "View All" in the lower right to expand the list of locations where the service is offered.

6. Select a resource's "Available Service Name" to learn more about the resource.

Tip:

- Use Ctrl+F or ⌘+F to find specific information (e.g. areas or services) you are looking for.

3 Navigate

1. Go to wellbadger.org.
2. Select "Youth Wellness Hub" on the top menu bar.*
3. Refer to the comprehensive instructions on the "Youth Wellness Hub" webpage to best use the Youth Wellness Hub.

The Youth Wellness Hub can only be used to find mental and behavioral health resources for children ages 21 and below.*
